Our Franchise Model

LIVEWIRE franchisees are not required to pay royalty fees year on year. This makes our franchisee model the most attractive for any business man. Our very unique franchisee model wherein the franchisee is allowed to earn in proportion to the efforts they put in the business. We do not charge royalty based on the revenues as we believe that when a franchisee puts in so much efforts to increase its collections and profits, it is only fair to allow the franchise to retain a lion’s share. The revenue sharing is based on a percentage - an annual fee, that is worked out at the very beginning, adhering to the business principles, size of operations and market potential. The annual fee model helps LIVEWIRE and its franchises keep their level of commitment at peak.
